Algeria Troops Recapture 2 Outposts, Radio Claims

ALGIERS (AP)—Algerian radio claimed today that Algerian forces have recaptured two desert outposts taken by Moroccan troops Monday.

The Algerians said Moroccan troops supported by tanks, planes and heavy artillery swept up to 60 miles over the border Monday in the area of Hassi-Beida and Tinjoub, the outposts.

The Algerian government never officially admitted that the two places fell to the Moroccan invaders. But today, the radio announcer said in a triumphant voice:

"Our forces have cleared the invaders from Hassi-Beida and Tinjoub."

The broadcast said the Moroccan forces were bringing in heavy reinforcements. It alleged that some of the Moroccan troops were airlifted to the fighting area in planes piloted by American airmen, members of a U.S. military training detachment with the Royal Moroccan Air Force.

The clash occurred in an area 300 miles across the Atlas Mountains from Marrakech, Morocco, where Mrs. John F. Kennedy is visiting this week. U.S. Ambassador John H. Ferguson indicated in Marrakech that the border clash would not curtail Mrs. Kennedy's stay, which is to last until Wednesday or Thursday.

The Algerians said that bitter fighting continued throughout Monday, but Moroccan authorities in Rabat said that all fighting ended after their troops occupied the two outposts early in the day. The Moroccans said there were no casualties.

The Algerians claimed their forces still held both places despite a tank onslaught and strafing and bombing from Moroccan planes. They did not mention any casualties.

Foreign Minister Abdelaziz Bouteflika of Algeria told a news conference that Algerian forces were poised to launch a counter-attack to drive out the invaders.

The order to attack will not be given, Bouteflika said, until all efforts to reach a negotiated settlement have failed.

Fighting first occurred in the area Oct. 4-8, when Algerian troops occupied the outposts. French military maps show them on the Algerian side of the border, but Morocco contends they are on the Moroccan side of the Varnier Line, an early French border.

Nomadic desert tribes in the area claim allegiance to King Hassan and tried to obtain attachment to Morocco after Algeria became independent. There are rich iron ore deposits to the southwest and oil is believed to be there also.

Nitze Might Stir Up New 'Explosion'

Faces Quizzing On Views Concerning Nuclear Carriers

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's appointment of a new Navy secretary may set off a chain reaction leading to congressional explosion over a tentative Pentagon decision to deny the Navy any more nuclear carriers.

When Paul H. Nitze, named Monday to succeed Fred Korth, comes before the Senate for confirmation, it seems certain he will be asked for his views on the continuing controversy over whether carriers should be phased out in favor of missiles and missile-firing submarines.

Korth, who said he was resigning to "attend to my pressing private affairs," probably will be asked to explain if his decision had any connection with his apparently futile efforts to get a new nuclear carrier built.

Associates said his defeat in the nuclear power argument sped his decision to quit.

Some Congress members said they thought Korth's action stemmed from the row over the controversial TFX warplane contract award, and Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., said Korth will be questioned again about it.

Korth has told the Senate Investigations subcommittee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., that a bank he formerly headed in Fort Worth, Tex., joined several others in making a loan to the General Dynamics Corp.

General Dynamics was given the TFX contract by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara despite a claim by the Boeing Co. that it could produce the TFX — tactical fighter, experimental — cheaper. Korth supported the award to General Dynamics.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said he thinks there will be no serious opposition to confirmation of Nitze, who now is assistant secretary of defense for international affairs. He was named to the post by Kennedy in 1961.

The nomination of Nitze, 55, will go to the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Hancock Man Held As Wife Is Wounded

NEW CUMBERLAND — A young housewife was shot in the abdomen early today while her 34-year-old husband said he was instructing her how to operate a revolver for protection against prowlers.

Mrs. Verna Lee Utt, 27, of New Cumberland Heights underwent surgery in Weirton General Hospital after the mishap at 1:30 and was in "satisfactory" condition.

The hospital said the slug entered her left abdomen and was removed in surgery.

Hancock County sheriff's deputies said they are holding her husband, Everett Utt, a steelworker, for further questioning.

Utt told deputies he was showing his wife how to operate the .22-caliber revolver when it fired accidentally.

The family had heard noises at their home in the past, the husband told deputies.

Utt summoned a neighbor after the mishap and the neighbor called an ambulance. There are five children at the Utt home.

Board Hires 2 As Custodians At Wellsville

Bus Operator Also Named As Another Resigns From Post

Two new custodians and a bus driver were hired by the Wellsville Board of Education Monday night.

Charles Potts was named custodian at Fairview School at Hillcrest and Herman Hurd for McKinley School. Their salaries will be $2,600 per year.

They will fill vacancies created by resignations. Their names were submitted by the Civil Service Commission after they passed an examination.

John Bobolik was named as a bus driver at an annual salary of $1,325. The board accepted the resignation of Arnold Poynter as a bus driver. Bobolik will begin his duties Wednesday.

William Ferrall, board president, reported on a request made by residents of Coal Hollow that bus service be provided their children. He said the road would have to be widened before anything could be done.

Members of the board and residents of the area will meet with Yellow Creek Township trustees to discuss the problem.

Another possibility would be hiring an individual to haul the students out of the area, Ferrall said. The board will check the insurance companies to determine what type of insurance would be needed to cover students riding in a private vehicle.

The salary of Wayne Maylone was increased on the schedule from that of a teacher with three years experience to that of a teacher with a bachelor of arts degree. Supt. Lowell Myers said he had received certification of Maylone's completion of the necessary college work.

The board granted permission to the Little League Football organization to hold games at Nicholson Stadium for the next two Sundays. Earl Betz

City Salutes Quintuplets And Parents

ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP) — It was wet and gray in Quint City USA—but the people turned out in droves to say "Happy Birthday" to the Fischer quintuplets.

An estimated 20,000 to 25,000 lined Aberdeen's main street Monday for a mile-long, hour and a half parade honoring Andrew Fischer, his wife, Mary Ann, and their newborn — four girls and a boy.

Six blocks from the noise and excitement of the biggest celebration ever staged in this farming community, the month-old quintuplets squirmed and kicked in their Isolettes at St. Luke's Hospital.

They had another weigh-in session and got measured for the first time.

Mary Ann, the smallest, weighed 3 pounds, 12 ounces and measured 16½ inches; Mary Magdalene weighed 4-10 and measured 17; Mary Catherine was 4-13 and 18½; Mary Margaret was 5-1 and 18½; and James Andrew 6-1 and 19 inches.

Pickets Stay On City Side Of Bridges

More Than Half Of Plant's Crews Go Back To Their Jobs

An intermittent work stoppage of more than two weeks at the Homer Laughlin China Co. appeared headed toward an end today as more than half the company's 1,400 employees reported to their jobs this morning.

An estimated 700 to 800 Laughlin employees were reported on the job at mid-morning and a company official said the continually growing back-to-work movement indicated production may return to normal by this afternoon or Wednesday.

Pickets Stay On Bridge

Pickets of IBOP Local Union 141, in which the dispute with Laughlin's originated in late September, continued to maintain picket lines at the Ohio approaches to the Newell and Chester Bridges. Plant picketing was banned last week by an injunction issued in Hancock County Circuit Court.

Homer Laughlin said over half its work force was on the job at mid-morning and added that more employees were trickling in.

Work stoppages ended Monday morning at the three other major district dinnerware plants — Hall China Co., Harker China Co. and Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. The concerns had been idled by pickets since Thursday morning.

At Homer Laughlin this morning, decorating shop operations were reported at "almost 100 per cent" of normal. Clay department operations were reported swinging back into production and the company said it hopes to get its glaze kiln operating by the afternoon.

Follows Shop Meeting

The back-to-work movement at Laughlin's apparently stemmed from a meeting called by the master shop committee yesterday afternoon at the old IBOP Building on W. 6th St. About 500 employees attended the three and a half hour session.

The master shop committee, citing the fact the stoppage has been termed illegal by the international union, asked the employees to return to their job and permit the dispute to be arbitrated through established grievance procedures.

However, the result of the meeting was inconclusive. Some employees had indicated they would not return to their jobs until Local 141 removed its pickets.

All Outside Burning Now Banned By State

The Ohio Division of Forestry at Columbus, concerned over numerous brush and forest fires, has issued a warning that no outside burning of any type is to be permitted.

All burning permits are canceled and the issuance of new permits has been suspended during what is termed an "emergency drought period."

The fire tower near West Point said today the fire index is 36, which is very high. Gusty winds are predicted.

The tower operator said the fire near Empire still is burning within the fire line, but is under control.

Invalid Rescued

Suspect Jailed For City Blaze

Spotted leaving the area in his car at a high rate of speed and later found again at the scene, a 23-year-old city man was jailed on suspicion Monday night after a fire which firemen said was set deliberately damaged two stores and apartments on St. Clair Ave. opposite Central Station.

The W. 6th St. man was to be questioned today by Deputy State Fire Marshal Mike Mellillo of Youngstown, an arson specialist, to determine if he might have started the blaze in which an elderly invalid woman had to be carried from her apartment; another elderly woman, almost blind, had to be assisted from her apartment by a man who was bitten five times by the woman's pet dog, now missing, and other residents also were forced to flee.

POLICE LT. Clyde W. Boso, who took the suspect into custody, said a can containing about a gallon of gasoline and three tubes of fire repair cement, described as highly flammable, were found in his auto. Quick action by fire fighters halted the blaze after it got off to a roaring start in the frame buildings owned by J. A. Trauner of Shadyside Ave. The buildings extend from St. Clair Ave. and Welch Alley to Green Ln.

Gallagher's Market operated by Mrs. Virginia Gallagher of Hazel St. and Triangle Products Co. owned by Allan Cohen occupy storerooms on St. Clair Ave. with Mrs. Edith S. Webb and Homer Richmond residing in second - floor apartments. Living in apartments in the building at Welch Alley and Green Ln. were Mrs. Sophia E.

Richards, Mrs. Violet Gray and Mrs. Dorothy Palmer.

MRS. WEBB, who is invalided with a fractured hip, was carried from her apartment by a fireman and Jack Gallagher, son of the market owner.

Gallagher also went to assist Mrs. Richards, whose sight is impaired, from her second-floor apartment.

When she refused to leave without her pet dog, Gallagher picked up the apparently frightened Chihuahua and it responded by biting him in five places on the wrist and hand.

He succeeded in getting the dog outside the apartment but it then jumped from the arms of other spectators and still hasn't been located. Friends appealed for help in returning Mrs. Richards's pet, her constant companion.

FIREMEN had just returned after spending six hours fighting a renewed brush fire on Shively's Hill when the alarm was received.

Asst. Fire Chief Alfred Van Dyne said the fire got off to a fast start although it was spotted quickly. Flames easily were visible above the rooftops in the downtown area, spectators said, and some firemen loading hose on Bank St. also could see the blaze.

The flames flared up quickly from a wooden stairway between the buildings leading to the second - floor apartments, Van Dyne said.

The fire definitely was set, he said, Van Dyne and Chief Charles Bryan aided police in interrogating the suspect.

Hoover Commission Reports

Reorganizing Mental Unit Seen Saving $4.6 Million

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Reorganization of Ohio's sprawling Mental Hygiene and Correction Department would save $4.6 million a year, the "Little Hoover Commission" estimated in a report today.

The report by a team of industrial management experts on loan to the state for a sweeping governmental survey listed 61 recommendations for consideration by Gov. James A. Rhodes and the legislature.

They included creation of a department of mental hygiene, youth and correctional services embracing present agencies, the newly established Ohio Youth Commission, the Soldiers and Sailors Home at Sandusky and the Soldiers and Sailors Orphans Home at Xenia.

Other recommendations would transfer auditing to the state auditor, place the Bureau of Support's billing for mental patients under a state fiscal agency, determine support payments on gross annual income, devise ways to acquire and train professional personnel, merge state parole officers with county probation officers and require juvenile support payments.

Estimated savings from a revamped department, added to a score of previously suggested changes in various state operations, brought the total to date to more than $37.7 million. Estimated savings range to $50 million when the report is completed by the group officially known as the Council for Reorganization of Ohio State Government.

The proposed department would have three major divisions — mental hygiene, youth services and correctional services. They would supervise the state's 25 mental institutions, 6 adult correctional institutions with their branch prisons and honor camps, plus 4 juvenile correctional facilities and 2 youth camps.

The present department has some 15,700 employees to care for more than 46,000 patients and prisoners.

The proposed mental hygiene services division would combine the present Mental Hygiene Division, the Soldiers and Sailors Home and community clinics.

Rig's Driver Charged When Steel Load Falls

A Bellaire area steel trucker whose rig dropped some sheet steel at the intersection of Route 30 and 170 in the Freeway construction site early today was arrested by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Wayne Givens, 24, of Bellaire R. D. 4 was charged with traveling with an insecure load.

Officers said Givens was headed north — en route from Martins Ferry to Sebring with a load of thin steel sheet — when some of the load slipped off the flat bed trailer as he went from the old section of Route 30 onto the new pavement, and skidded across the south lane.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a boy, 16, who is going with a great girl. There is only one thing wrong with Jill and I would like your advice on what to do about it.

In all the time we've been going together she never once has offered to pay my way to anything. I'd even settle for a Dutch treat once in awhile.

I don't want to sound cheap but when you go out these days it can get pretty expensive. Last week when we were leaving Jill's house her mother said, half joking, "Here's $5 — why don't you treat Wally for a change?" Jill looked shocked and answered, "ME pay a boy's way? I wouldn't think of it!"

What I want to know is why wouldn't she think of it? What's wrong with helping out once in awhile?

Please print this letter for me and for thousands of other guys who don't have money bushes growing in the front yard. — THIN WALLET WALLY.

Dear Thin Wally: To you, and to those thousands of other guys who are suffering from shell-out falter, I would like to say this: In our society it is customary for the male to pay for himself and his lady.

It is perfectly acceptable for the girl to crash through with tickets now and then, particularly if the boy has taken her out a lot. But no self-respecting male would want to be handed a $5 bill by his girl, nor would he want her to dig into her purse at the box office window.

Better Unannounced

Dear Ann: Our lovely daughter was married to a no-good bum for almost two years. She tried every which way to get him straightened around but it was useless. Finally our own minister advised her to get a divorce. So she did.

After she filed suit for a divorce she discovered she was pregnant. The baby is due any time now. Of course her ex-husband is the father of the child but she doesn't know how to word the baby announcements.

Should she say, "Mr. and Mrs. I announce the birth of —" or should it just be "Mrs. — announces —" since she is no longer married to him?

Please set us straight. She is deeply concerned. — NEEDING INFORMATION.

Dear Needing: Under the circumstances your daughter should skip the announcements. Friends and family will not need to be informed by mail.

Perennial Paupers

Dear Ann: My husband and I are in our middle 60s. We've both worked hard all our lives and now that we are at the stage where we could take things easier our kids won't let us.

Every time we turn around somebody needs a loan. Last week our oldest son and his wife came over — depressed. They are "dead tired and need a vacation," but can't afford it. Will we loan them $400 so they can go to Puerto Rico for two weeks?

They owe bills all over town, yet they talk about taking a vacation on borrowed money. They still owe us $300 which they borrowed to get their furniture out of storage.

My husband says we should let them have the money or they will think we are stingy and mean. If they needed it for an emergency I would say "yes," but I don't feel that we should lend them money for a vacation. What do you say?—STINGY AND MEAN????

Dear Mother: I say let them repay the $300 they owe you and when they can look the rest of their creditors in the eye they should save toward that vacation in Puerto Rico. It's a heavenly spot — and they ought to go — but not on your money.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Standpipe Work To End Monday

Continental - Fremont, Inc., of Fremont is expected to complete installation of a new steel conical roof on the No. 2 standpipe on Henry Ave. by Monday.

The Fremont concern received the contract July 5 from the Board of Public Utilities on its bid of $1,983 for the 3-16 inch plate welded roof. The company also will furnish a prime coat and a finish coat of aluminum paint on the roof. The work started Saturday.

Despite the erection of the new roof, the standpipe still is being used. Donald T. Duke, water department superintendent, said. The board originally thought the standpipe would have to be drained.

For that reason, the work was delayed until this fall so the standpipe wouldn't have to be drained during the peak demand. The new roof was purchased because the old roof had started to deteriorate at the edges.

Lisbon Man Convicted Of Rogers Store Entry

LISBON — A Common Pleas Court jury Monday returned a verdict of guilty against Kenneth Leroy McVay, 28, of Lisbon R. D. in the attempted burglary of the Cowan Store in Rogers May 24. The jury deliberated two hours.

McVay and Floyd Richards, 20, of Lisbon were indicted by the September Grand Jury for the burglary attempt.

Judge Joel H. Sharp presided for the trial of McVay. He held up the sentencing pending application for a new trial.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruise —

Dear Heloise: I am one of those poor unfortunates who bought traverse rods after making my draperies. Now, I find I do not have enough little nylon loops to hook all my pleats on. You just got to have an answer for me.

HELEN SMITH.

DEAR HELEN: Don't despair. You are one of many who write in to this column with the same trouble. All you have to do is go to any drapery department or wherever you bought your traverse rods, and buy these little gadgets for about a nickel a piece. These little gadgets can be added to your traverse rod without even taking them down. Get your saleslady to show you how to insert them. There is really nothing to it.

Don't make less pleats in your draperies to make up for this deficiency, gals. The more pleats a drapery has, the prettier they are. After all, these do go in our home . . . the most wonderful place in this world.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Today I found a new idea for my nylon dish cloth. (Ladies this is plain old nylon — which we buy at our dime or department store for less than 40 cents a yard — and is ordinarily used for evening dresses.)

My baby put red crayon all over my linoleum - top kitchen table. To remove it I used the nylon net and some water. That's all! No cleaner, no eraser pads . . . just nylon net. The crayon came off fast. I was really amazed! This also works on hardwood floors.

MOTHER.

DEAR HELOISE: I make my work aprons from solid color Terry cloth bath towels. One towel will make two aprons. I used a flowered cotton print to match the towels for the waist bands and stitch two big pockets of matching material on the towel part. These aprons catch all the splashes and I do not get wet when I work at the sink.

R.O.E.

Who ever thought of cutting a bath towel in half to make aprons? One could use a little finger-tip matching towel, cut half in two for the pockets! This way if you never got around to ironing the cotton band, it wouldn't look too bad. Eh?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Sometimes we buy more bananas than we can use at one time . . . especially if they are on sale. I remove each one and wrap it individually in aluminum foil and put all in the vegetable crisper of my refrigerator. They keep for several weeks this way.

When the banana is unwrapped the skin will be black as coal, but the inside is as firm as the day you bought it.

One that is fairly green, should be taken out ahead of time so that it will finish ripening before you want to use it.

MILDRED.

DEAR HELOISE: When making hot starch and it gets too thick and you want to use it immediately . . . while it is still hot drop in several ice cubes and continue stirring. When the starch gets the right consistency remove the pieces of ice cubes, if any are left, with a spoon.

Thefts Reported From 2 Vehicles

A tractor - trailer owner and a motorist complained to police Monday parts and other items were stolen from their parked vehicles Sunday night or early yesterday.

Harry Moore, 1048 Dresden Ave., reported at 4:30 p. m. Monday four wheel discs were stolen from his 1960 model auto while it was parked on Dresden Ave. between 9 p. m. Newell Firemen Push Campaign For Funds

The pottery strike has not interrupted the annual drive for funds to maintain the Newell volunteer fire department, firemen announced today in clarifying unofficial reports.

Floyd Wilson, assistant chief, said the department's drive which opened Oct. 6 has been lagging as some area residents said they understood it was halted due to the work stoppage at four dinnerware plants. "The department has not called off the drive to raise maintenance funds, and it is continuing," Wilson said.

Firemen plan to continue solicitation in the rural areas and will cover the community this week. Gene Lytton is general chairman.

Your posture tells All. The set of your shoulders can reveal the type of work you do for eight hours a day, and the approximate number of years you've been on the job. More important, your posture depicts your aches and ailments, present and future.

The tell-tale signs of a good posture are clearly evident from the shoulder blades up. What is happening to that section of the spine is a sure clue to the posture you assume during your working day, and therefore to your probable occupation.

Keep In Trim

Your Job Can Affect Your Posture

back. Slowly but surely the backbone bends! Assumed for months and years, this posture feels natural and right. But it's against nature and so wrong that it fosters a hump.

A test-exercise will show whether or not you have gone beyond the point of no return to straight posture. Lie on back on floor, feet elevated to low bench; press small of back flat against floor. Have both arms down at sides, with backs of wrists on floor. Action: Flex right knee toward chest, as you circle both arms around on floor beyond head without letting backs of wrists come off floor. This squares your shoulders. If you can get your shoulders squarely against floor, you can mend your posture.

WHAT TO DO when you have to keep on at the job, tired or not? Take time out to shrug shoulders, circling up, back, around and down slowly, to release tension. Place a flat cushion, or book, just below the shoulder blades and lean against the chair-back. Such a device takes the strain off the back. Have back of hips touching chairback. At home, relax for a few minutes in a corrective posture. Lie on back with a folded towel placed directly under the outcurve of the shoulders; knees flexed, soles of feet flat on floor.

Let this positive thought take root in your mind — your posture need not grow old at any age, even if you live to be a hundred. Send, long stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet "Get A Lift With Posture." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Custodian Set For Southern Local School

The Southern Local School District Board of Education Monday night hired a part-time custodian for the new high school and discussed the need for additional operating funds.

Calvin Detchen of Salineville R. D. 3 was hired to work three hours nightly at the high school to aid in cleaning the building. About six had applied for the post.

He will assist John Bettis, the only regular custodian at the building.

The board was presented enrollment figures and tax data about the district by Jack Baker, executive head. The information is to be distributed in a campaign to promote support for a proposed 2-mill operating levy and a bond issue for an addition to the high school, special issues on the Nov. 5 general election ballot.

The board granted permission to Baker to suspend school sessions Nov. 15 if sufficient number of teachers wish to attend a mental health workshop at East Liverpool.

Policy was set concerning attendance of teachers at professional meetings. If a teacher is unable to attend such a meeting because of some pressing need, the teacher may report to the principal and be excused, utilizing accumulated sick leave.

Action was tabled on a proposal by a representative of a bus shelter firm to provide shelters in the district, using them for advertising purposes.

Application was made for two buses under the new state central purchase program.

Application was also made for some $12,000 worth of audio-visual math, science and other aids under the federal government Title Three program. The district has matched science equipment with high school facilities.

lin's originated Sept. 27, when Local 141 began picketing.

Picketing Ends Once

The picketing ended when the dispute was referred to a four-man labor-management discharge committee. The committee, after two meetings, decided to ask the U. S. Mediation and Conciliation Service to furnish a list of prospective arbitrators.

About the same time, the picketing resumed at Laughlin's and spread to the other three plants.

Strike Continuing At Plant In Midland

The strike at the Mackintosh-Hemphill Division of the E. W. Bliss Co. at Midland continued today as negotiations, being held in Pittsburgh daily since Saturday, have failed to settle the dispute also involving the Pittsburgh plant.

Steelworkers Local 1269 of Midland and Local 1886 of Pittsburgh started the strike late Friday after a breakdown in talks over fringe benefits in a new contract.

Only a token picket force is stationed at the Midland plant, where some 300 persons are idled by the work stoppage. About 250 are out at the Pittsburgh facility.

Further negotiations are scheduled for Wednesday morning at Midland.

Ohio Power Crews Ignore Picket Line

About 30 linemen, substation employees and meter readers at the East Liverpool office of the Ohio Power Co. returned to work this morning, ignoring a picket line established by an electricians' local protesting non-union work on the city's new street lighting system.

The utility employees, members of Local 696, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, returned to work this morning, crossing picket lines set up by IBEW Local 93 at the company's office, garage and 2nd St. sub station.

When Local 93 established the picket lines yesterday morning, the utility employees refused to cross, resulting in a one-day work stoppage.

Local 93 set up the picket line in protest of work being done by the Plate Excavating Co. of Wellsville, which union officials said, used non-union workmen in providing new bases and ground wires for new light standards for the downtown lighting system.

Meetings Announced To Republican Group

Plans for two meetings were announced when the County Republican Advisory Committee met Monday noon at the Wick Hotel in Lisbon.

The Salem GOP Women's Club will sponsor a meeting tonight at the Salem Masonic Temple in which all Republican city candidates will be introduced.

David O'Neil, a Youngstown councilman, will speak at a meeting of the Columbiana Republican Club Oct. 22 at 8 p. m. in the school cafeteria.

Atty. Charles Pike of Lisbon, county chairman, presided. Next meeting will be Monday noon at the Wick Hotel.

5 Senior Girls Nominated For Oak Glen Queen

Five senior girls have been nominated as candidates for football queen of Oak Glen High School, with the crowning to take place at halftime ceremonies of Friday night's game with Bellaire St. John's at 8 at Newell's Memorial Field.

Selected by the Senior Class, the nominees are Sherrie Calcott, Carrie Lynn Newbrough, Mary Lou Price, Jennifer Temple and Sandy Williams. The student body has voted on the queen, and the winner's name will be kept secret until halftime.

A member of the Golden Bears' football team will crown the queen. Her court will include two juniors, Linda Shroades and Jennifer Thornberry.

Principal E. Russell Slack said the football queen committee includes Jessica Crissinger, George Gogol, Robert Graham, Karen Smith, Jerry Manypenny and Donna Chaney.

There will be a dance Saturday night from 8 to 11 at Chester Junior High School, temporary home of Oak Glen High School. A band will furnish music.

Faculty sponsors are Miss Sara Thomas, William Owings and Floyd Lancia.

Commissioners Buy Departmental Forms

LISBON — County commissioners Monday bought 5,000 sets of purchase order forms for the Welfare Department from the Meek Stationery Co. of East Palestine on a low bid of $187.45.

There was one other bid, a $199 offer from Moore Printing Co. of Salem.

In other business, the commissioners voted a travel allowance for Welfare Director Robert Bycroft to attend the Northeast Ohio District Welfare Directors meeting in Canton Wednesday and travel allowance for seven members of the Soldiers Relief Commission to attend a district meeting in Canton Oct. 25-27.

Boron® cleans carburetors

Sohio has put a special Carburetor Cleaner in Boron Gasoline that dissolves dirt deposits and washes them away!

To show you how dirty a carburetor can get, Sohio cut one in half. And the hard deposits that had formed inside around the throttle plate were scraped out.

Deposits like these are caused by tiny dirt particles in crankcase fumes from your own engine, in the exhaust of other cars around you in traffic, and in the atmosphere itself. Your air cleaner can't trap all these dirt particles. Some do get through to your carburetor and can build up deposits in the throttle plate section. They can block the air flow to your engine when you are idling. The result is stalling, rough idling and wasted gasoline.

If your carburetor is already dirty, the special Carburetor Cleaner in Boron Gasoline will clean it. Because the deposits are hard, the cleaning process may take time. But the end result will be a Boron Clean Carburetor! If your carburetor is already clean, regular use of Boron Gasoline will keep it clean!

All The Steel News Is Boomy

Steel Magazine's report that steel producers are squaring away for a 15 per cent increase in October, instead of a 10 per cent increase (previously considered on the optimistic side) is adding to the boomy atmosphere in the steel industry. No less significant of still bigger things coming is Steel's further report that the industry's "selective price increases" are being accepted. This indicates that the market is reacting as hope for price increases. It is taking them at face value — not discounting them.

This creates the correct psychological mood for normal buying, plus a little to stay on the safe side. The alternative is what existed previously, when consumers of steel scouted all talk of price increases because they knew existing prices were being discounted.

Down To Earth—Kerplunk!

It now seems likely that if President Kennedy had talked with James E. Webb, administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, he never would have mentioned a joint U.S.-Soviet moon flight.

Administrator Webb says it's out of the question.

This repeats the judgment of everybody who has commented on the proposal since it was made last Sept. 20. "There is room for new cooperation in the field of space," said President Kennedy in a speech to the General Assembly of the United Nations. "I include among these possibilities a joint expedition to the moon."

This side remark, incidental to the President's main theme—peace and disarmament—stole the headlines. It sparked a lively discussion in this country. But it fell as flat in the Soviet Union as it fell here. The reason is plain, as far as the Russians are concerned.

The Soviet Union's space experts have nothing to gain by getting hooked up to the U.S. space program. They know they have the only booster in existence strong enough for a moon shot. They have made the only near approach to a junction of two rockets in space.

On the reasonable assumption that no news turns out to be the lull before another burst of sensational news in the Russian space program, another burst of

The situation now moves into the season of the year when weather looms as large as economics. A winter like last winter ceased to be climate and became economics.

So far, ideal construction weather has prolonged summer building activity.

New autos are catching on with the public. Auto makers are working around the clock to build up dealer inventories.

There is no danger of filling up the pipelines as long as the other end stays open — as long as new steel keeps going up, plates keep going into the presses and bars keep going into the milling machines.

The only thing that can stop steel from staying boomy is another thermometer-busting winter.

news is due. All that has been coming out of the U.S. space program recently is persistent evidence that it is lapsing into one of those incredible foul-ups that afflict public projects in this country.

Things go from bad to worse and finally to worst, until finally the government has no choice but to shake up the whole snafu and start over.

Gridiron To Senate

If Associate Justice Byron White can make it from all-American and pro football to the Supreme Court, Charles (Bud) Wilkinson is a good bet to make it from University of Oklahoma football coach to the U.S. Senate.

The Tulsa Tribune has said in a copyrighted story he will retire in January to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for senator, bidding for a chance to run against the seat now held by former Gov. J. Howard Edmondson.

Coach Wilkinson's emergency as a political triple threat is getting publicity because of his successful career with the University of Oklahoma and also because he is special consultant to President Kennedy on a physical fitness.

But it is getting attention from insiders for a less obvious reason—the fact he is in sympathy with Sen. Barry Goldwater, leading contender for the Republican presidential nomination.

Becoming Quite A Crowd

New Labor Rackets Probe Weighed

By Victor Riesel

Joe Valachi's Cosa Nostra—"our thing"—made sections of the labor movement "their thing." About one third of the nation's crime cartel chiefs have been in the union rackets for years. By actual count, 23 of the delegates to the Cosa Nostra national convention in tiny Apalachin, N. Y., on Nov. 13, 1957, were operating or dominating powerful union locals right across the U.S. — but mostly from the East Coast to Chicago.

This is buried in the secret "information" Valachi has given to the FBI, the Federal Bureau of Narcotics and to William Hundley, chief of the Justice Department's special division on organized crime.

It's beginning to seep through Valachi's public testimony and that of the experts appearing before the McClellan committee.

Many of the Apalachin, N. Y., mobsters — high in the confidence of the Mafia control commission or "council" — still are powerful to local unions.

Some of the senators on the subcommittee now plan to ask the Senate Labor Committee to follow through with a wide open investigation of the infiltration into unions.

THEY WANT to know how the mobs got into the locals — and how some of them have been able to retain power.

Typical of a union which has been infiltrated is the Hod Carriers, Building and Common Laborers. Its national office is clean. Its books and national welfare and pension funds are impeccable. But it apparently is powerless to police some of its locals.

There are, for example, some hod carriers' locals in New York and Northern New Jersey which have been "influenced" by Apalachin delegates who were buddies either of Valachi himself, Lucky Luciano, John Ormento (now doing 40 years on a narcotics conviction), Frank Livorsi, Johnny Dio or Tony (Ducks) Carallo.

A top adviser to a Cosa Nostra national commissioner, according to John F. Shanley, deputy inspector of the New York Police Department's intelligence activities, is Vincent Rao. Not too long ago Rao, who also is in many businesses, was head of Hod Carriers Local 404. This was an influential outfit operating out of Rao's vest pocket.

RAO SIMPLY declared himself president of the local, which used a Brooklyn apartment as its nominal headquarters' address.

Other Apalachin crime cartel chiefs who cut in on hod carriers' units were Lewis Larasso, who was a trustee of Local 394 of the Hod Carriers at the time of the Cosa Nostra convention. Another delegate was Rusario Mancuso, once president of Local 186 of the hod carriers. There was Frank Majuri, also a delegate, who was mighty influential in Local 364.

This was not limited to the East Coast. A big time Chicago gambler by name of Alfred Pilotto was president of Hod Carriers Local 5 until 1972. After that he would drop into the union headquarters almost daily and conduct his own business in its offices and over its phones.

He is a good friend of Tony Accardo, long believed to be one of the two top crime syndicate chiefs in the Chicago area.

ALMOST ALL trails opened by Valachi or such police experts as Shanley, lead not only to the multi-million dollar narcotics trade which will be probed for another three weeks but also to labor rackets.

There is the Gallo mob — described in some federal documents as the successor to Murder, Inc. One of the first operations of this gang was something known as Local 19, of the Federated Service Workers Union (FSWU). They got a charter from this independent FSWU simply by muscling in.

Valachi has linked other crime bosses and "bosses of bosses" to other unions. But any further discussion of his revelations would simply impede current investigations and give the hoods' lawyers a chance to scream mistrial in future court cases. So it just is not worth giving the mobs a chance to get off the hook.

THERE WILL BE convictions — and a demand for more laws. After a session the other day, Senator Javits told this columnist that:

"I believe the Senate's Labor Committee should make inquiry into whether non-unionization or 'paper' unions or such racketeering intrusions into the labor field are being effectively blocked by such existing laws as the Hobbs Anti-Racketeering Act, first enacted in 1934 and the Labor - Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959."

"This grew out of hearings some years ago by the same investigations subcommittee now questioning Valachi."

Letter To Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I am writing in regard to the treatment of the band and students of East Liverpool High School at the East Liverpool-Wellsville game.

Many people have made the comment, and I agree with them, that it is very rude of the Wellsville band not to invite the visiting team's band, in this case the East Liverpool band, to march down the field and play the national anthem with them. Also, when our clown was up on the goal post at the lower end of the stadium, a man, who I think was a caretaker, went over and told him to get down. Roger got told and started away when this man pulled him back by the arm. There was no excuse for this treatment.

After the half - time, when our students tried to form a column for our team to run through, they were told to get off the field. A few of the students got on the field anyhow and the team went farther off the field just so they could run through the column.

As Miss Githier said in her letter to the editor we shouldn't boast, but we can be very proud of the politeness of our football team, our band and our students in general.

Reds Reveal New Lack Of Strategy Planning

When the Soviet troops blocked United States armored units on the way to West Berlin a few days ago and suddenly increased tension, there were two schools of thought in Washington. One was that the step was deliberately undertaken in Moscow to warm up the cold war—an alleged act of duplicity. The other view, which this writer shared, was that the episode arose because in the top-heavy bureaucracy in Moscow the left hand doesn't know what the right hand is doing.

The whole thing apparently was the result of the cumbersome and clumsy methods of handling the relations between the army and the policy-making committees in the Kremlin.

It was hardly plausible that, while Foreign Minister Gromyko was in Washington conferring with President Kennedy about improving relations between the two governments, anybody high up in the Soviet government would choose this very time to bring about a new crisis over the routine passage of United States armored cars and troops to Berlin.

It will be recalled that Mr. Gromyko was caught in a somewhat similar dilemma when he was at the White House last October during the very week that the crisis over Soviet missile bases in Cuba was shaping up.

He undertook then to deny flatly what later became public about the missiles. Since that episode, there have been intimations that Mr. Gromyko just didn't know the facts at the time and that the Soviet practice in such matters is not to tell anyone about a secret move unless he is directly involved as a party to the operation.

THE SOVIET government is in most respects a one-man government but the Kremlin has committees which endeavor to function upon the basis of related "party-line" plans or outlines of policy.

Often instructions issued to the army, for instance, are not revised or changed in time to meet new diplomatic developments.

Some of the erratic courses of action which emerged are never explained to the outside world. Thus, for example, the Soviet government functions under an internal censorship.

The censors on some occasions take a little time to find out whether they should suppress or allow publication of certain news. Just recently, when news was flashed around the world that the United States might be willing to sell wheat to the Communist-bloc countries, the Soviet newspapers on the following day printed nothing about it. A few days later, all of them were praising the idea.

Likewise, when President Kennedy suggested that maybe a joint expedition to the moon might be worked out, the Soviet press omitted references to that part of the President's speech to the U.N. The censors had to find out from higher-up what to do, and a few days later they allowed it to be printed.

Even the news of the latest Berlin blockade was kept out of the Soviet newspapers for two days, and finally Izvestia spoke vaguely of it as "much ado about nothing."

INASMUCH as the Soviet administrative system is so interwoven in specific directives that cannot be modified except from on high and since it takes so much time to get policy revisions, the tendency is to go ahead on the basis of existing instructions rather than to take a chance of incurring disfavor from someone higher up by deviating from the directive.

All this is an obviously unsatisfactory system of operation, and it raises a question about the extent of the use of the "hot line" for direct communication between the president of the United States and the head of the Soviet government.

Premier Khrushchev has been away from Moscow touring the interior of his vast domain and has not been in the news since Sept. 29. Doubtless his underlings have known where he has been but hesitated to bother him on his trip until the American protest was filed.

The sudden shifts and maneuvers on the part of the Soviet commanding officers in East Berlin have also caused a lot of anxiety in the past.

A United States armored unit was blocked for several hours last May for technical reasons, and the same thing happened in 1959.

Unfortunately for the Kremlin, when a directive written many months before in strictly military terms is literally applied at the wrong time, it tends to negate the impression that there has been a change for the better in the diplomatic relations between the two governments.

When the nuclear test-ban treaty was signed, the air was filled with optimistic hopes and forecasts of a new era in Soviet-American relations.

WHY WOULD the Moscow government choose the very day of the formal signing of the test-ban treaty in the Kremlin to generate a crisis atmosphere in Berlin? The answer probably is that the Soviets were caught in their own governmental red tape. They are always reluctant to admit it when they make a mistake. So the new Berlin crisis is being allowed to peter out naturally, without any official explanation of how the fumble occurred.

Now presumably there will be a renewal of the "euphoria" in which the signing of the test-ban treaty was hailed as the big first step in a series of anticipated moves toward a truce of certainly more than a few days' or a few months' duration.

Virus For Cancer?

By Joseph R. Hixson

NEW YORK — When an epidemic of a virus disease such as German measles or cholera strikes a community, not everyone comes down with it.

Just about everyone in the community either already has or develops immunity to the virus. That immunity can be shown by testing blood samples for antibodies to the virus.

AN EPIDEMIC of leukemia seems to have struck the Chicago suburb of Niles, Ill., in the three - year period from 1957 to 1959. There were eight cases of the fatal blood cancer in Niles children during that period — a rate four times what could be expected.

By 1956 Dr. Steven O. Schwartz of the Kekketoen Institute for Medical Research at Cook County Hospital, Chicago, had become convinced that at least one form of cancer, namely leukemia, is caused by a virus.

If the Niles cases did indeed represent an epidemic of a leukemia virus infection, then the brothers and sisters and mothers and fathers of the fatally afflicted children encountered the microbe and manufactured antibodies to fight the infection.

In the Journal of the American Medical Association, Dr. Schwartz reports evidence that that is exactly what happened.

USING three different tests for leukemia virus antibodies on blood samples from the Niles children's close relatives, Dr. Schwartz found evidence of immunity to leukemia in those who were closest to the child victims during their illness.

Test made of the victims' own blood showed no trace of protective antibodies.

Thus the research of Dr. Schwartz and his fellow workers, Drs. Irving Greenspan and Eric R. Brown, seems to add another strong piece of evidence implicating a virus as the cause of one form of cancer in humans.

FURTHERMORE, he says, it appears that the reason a child is susceptible to the disease is the failure of his body defense cells to make protective antibody.

Cancer researchers are by no means in agreement that leukemia is indeed a virus disease, but as one of them said when told of Dr. Schwartz' latest report, "His case now looks awfully strong. It should spur more efforts to develop protective vaccines against these viruses."

Dr. Schwartz was the first scientist to demonstrate that tissue taken from the brains of human leukemia victims could cause cancer in laboratory animals. He has now accomplished another historic first.

Justice Twill

I had no idea when I mentioned the idea of picking up former presidents on the bounce and running them for the vice presidency that I would get involved in a constitutional fracas.

All I wanted to talk about was the possibility Dwight D. Eisenhower, the greatest vote-puller of my lifetime, might be nominated for vice president by the Republican National Convention next year.

To keep the proposition in balance, I suggested the Democrats might nominate Harry Truman for the same office. "Americans are thinking in the right direction," I observed. "They want to take advantage of the probability that a man will learn as he moves along in this world and that his education will be out of the ordinary if he picks it up in the White House."

That didn't sound revolutionary to me, but whammo! I get letters setting me straight. And telephone calls. And people cornering me in small enclosures and shaking their fingers at me.

THE GIST of what they want to set me straight on is the Constitution, the document everybody talks about and few people read. "Political observers far more astute than I contend it would be illegal for a former president to be on the ballot, even for vice president," writes one patriot. "Since he already would have served, his appearance on the ticket would violate the spirit if not the letter of the law."

Well, sir, it would do no such thing. All the Constitution says (Article XXII) is that "no person shall be ELECTED to the office of the President more than twice and no person who has held the office of President, or acted as President, for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected President shall be elected to the office of President more than once."

By Truman Twill

Dwight Eisenhower could be elected vice president and so could Harry Truman. The catch is they could not succeed to the presidency, then run for election.

The XXII amendment says two times is the limit for someone like Mr. Eisenhower, who started from scratch the first time, and once is the limit for someone like Mr. Truman, who had more than two years of Franklin Roosevelt's fourth term then ran for election in his own right.

WHY DOES the subject come up at this time? Because the limit on presidential tenure is keeping men like Mr. Eisenhower in the public eye. Had it not been for the XXII amendment, he could have used his unprecedented popularity to seek a third term; he probably would have made it with no trouble.

From now on, we're going to have more former presidents around in the wings, itching for another appearance on stage.

John F. Kennedy, for example, if he gets a second term, hardly will be ready to hit the rocker for the rest of his life in 1969. He might want to come back as a vice-presidential candidate in 1972.

There's be nothing illegal about it. Anyone who accuses Justice Twill of flouting the Constitution had better smile, by George, or be ready to step into the alley.

Parents Repeat School Bus Plea

For the second time in as many months, a group of 50 to 60 parents from the Midland area of Midland urged the Midland Board of Education Monday night to provide free bus transportation for the students.

Following the initial request at the September meeting, committees were chosen from each to discuss the problem.

THE TWO committees met several times since then with the board committee presenting two alternate proposals.

The board, in a statement read by James Morrison, president, said it would aid any family in need of assistance in transporting their children to school. For families on welfare, or other needy, the board offered to pay an additional 25 cents for the fare that all parents of the area now pay.

Both proposals were rejected by the delegation, which expressed the belief the board could "do better."

Morrison said that "he was truly sorry that the board could not make a better solution, but he explained that there is just not enough money in the already-prepared budget to stand the additional cost."

IN OTHER action, 26 teachers in the Midland system were given pay raises of $200, retroactive to Sept. 1, to bring them up to the minimum of the existing state pay schedule for professional employees.

Stanley Yukica was hired as an assistant to the basketball coach at a salary of $300 per year. The request of Paul Farnan for an increase in salary as first assistant to the head football coach, was denied.

Identical bids of $8 per ton on an order of 80 tons of coal were received from the John Radella Trucking & Excavating Co. and the George Stuten Co., both of Midland.

The contract was awarded to the Stuten Co., which provided coal in the past.

Blacktop Job Due To Start At Wellsville

The Tri - State Asphalt Corp. of Martins Ferry was slated to begin a blacktop job in Wellsville Wednesday while the Ohio Valley Paving Corp. of St. Clairsville is scheduled to complete the seal - coating of streets today.

Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare warned motorists that there will be several chuckholes along Wells Ave., which are slated to be resurfaced by Tri-State.

A crew is working today ripping out old blacktop that was hooved up and ripped. The floodwall plates in the street at the gate cannot be raised any more so the old blacktop had to be dug out around them, he said.

The manholes and water boxes along the street will not be raised until after the project is completed. The blacktop will then be dug out, risers installed and leveled off with cement, the director explained.

He said this will provide a much smoother job.

The job is being done by the State Highway Department. Tri-State holds the contract for this and several other area projects, including the resurfacing of Chester Bridge.

Highway department officials said Tri - State probably will do the bridge last. It may be done over a weekend to avoid a heavy flow of traffic. The bridge probably will be closed for a day.

Ohio Valley blacktopped a section of Commerce St. and has been applying seal - coating to sections of about 25 other streets. This is the annual improvement program by the city.

Ohio Valley started work a week ago. The director said the entire job should be completed by this afternoon.

Park benches have been removed and stored for the winter. The water has been turned off in the fountains at the Roadside Park, Baldasare said.

the forenoon, Gov. Rhodes will fly to the city, but whether his twin - engine plane will land at Herron Airport near Pughtown or Greater Pittsburgh Airport will depend on weather conditions.

Flag Display Asked To Welcome Rhodes

East Liverpool householders and business places today were asked to make a general display of the U. S. and Ohio flags Thursday to welcome Gov. James A. Rhodes.

The request was made by officers of the Community Improvement Corp., which arranged the governor's visit for a talk on industrial development.

He will be met by an auto caravan of CIC members and given a police escort to the city.

The governor is scheduled to leave immediately after his address for the return flight to Columbus.

Schools In Hancock To Close For 2 Days

Hancock County schools will be closed Thursday and Friday while teachers attend a two-day educational session at Wheeling, the office of County Supt. Robert H. Hall announced. Instructors are to attend the annual fall regional meeting of the West Virginia Education Association.

The Region 4 session will be for teachers from five Northern Panhandle counties — Hancock, Brooke, Marshall, Ohio and Wetzel.

Midland's Fund Drive Report Due

The Midland United Fund group will report at a meeting tonight at 7:30 in Lincoln High School, the Beaver United Funds reminded.

Approaching the second half of the 1963 campaign, the county group said $494,632 has been reported to date, or 61 per cent of the $803,902 goal.

"Our campaign reports to date are quite satisfactory and on schedule," Michael Baker Jr., 1963 countywide campaign chairman, said. "However, an additional $300,000 must be raised before the end of October. Our 1963 goal of $803,902 represents the minimum needs of 43 affiliated United Fund agencies. Because this is the minimum need, we cannot be satisfied with raising only a portion of our goal. It is vital that we have 100 per cent subscription."

"Only a few weeks remain in this year's campaign. I urge all citizens of Beaver County to pledge their fair share of a half to one hour's pay per month for 12 months immediately. The campaign must and will conclude on time with 100 per cent of the goal raised."

The campaign is scheduled to close in the last week of October. During that week all eight local area United Funds will hold final report meetings.

Board Hires 3 At Wellsville

and Harold Hancock appeared to ask for the use of the field. The board agreed to set a fee of $2 per hour for a janitor during the game and while cleaning up afterwards.

Richard Grills, board member, and Myers will draft rules and regulations to govern the use of the field.

Ferrall said he will work with Earl Mundy, supervisor of custodians, on the reseeding of the football field. It was seeded in the spring but the lack of rain during the summer caused the grass to burn out.

The work will begin as soon as the last home game is played in two weeks.

Myers reported on a request by the MacDonald Parent-Teacher Association and the Omni Athletic Boosters Club to install an electric range and sink in a storage room at MacDonald. Charles Glass, board member, will serve as liaison for the board on the project.

Myers said the seventh grade will make a field trip to the Schoenbrunn Indian Village some Saturday in the near future.

School will be dismissed at noon Nov. 15 to permit the teachers to attend a mental health workshop at Westgate School in East Liverpool.

Plans also were made to attend a meeting called by the East Liverpool Board of Education with County Auditor Kenneth Bell and County Treasurer Vincent Judge to discuss the delay in the final tax settlement.

As the money from the settlement has not arrived as soon as it has in the past, the board was forced to authorize Raymond Rolley, clerk, to borrow up to $10,000 to meet expenses. Rolley said there is $85,724.24 in the bank, which includes $45,505.15 in the general fund. Almost $43,000 of the general fund will be needed to meet the payroll Oct. 20, he said.

This is the first time this year the board has had to borrow money.

The Wellsville Chapter of Eastern Star was granted permission to use the MacDonald Gymnasium for a hat and style show April 10, 1964. The rental fee will be set later.

Myers said there are two student teachers in the Wellsville system, both from Geneva College. They are Mrs. Gladys Kozora and Mrs. Edna Brown, both of Wellsville. They are the first who have trained in Wellsville in several years, he said.

A discussion was held on a new law setting a 40-hour week for custodians.

Myers said there are two interpretations of the ruling made by the attorney general. The matter has not yet been resolved as to whether all must work under the 40-hour week.

Myers said a meeting will be held at East Liverpool Monday with other area boards to discuss the rulings.

The board went on record opposing a proposal by state officials that centralized purchasing be used by the State Board of Education for securing school buses for all school systems.

The board voted to send letters to the State Board of Education, Gov. James Rhodes, Robert Parson, transportation director for the state board, Rep. Clarence Wetzel and State Sen. Edmund Sargus, notifying them of the action.

It is not sure if the proposal has yet been made into a law or is to be adopted by the State Board of Education, but the board pointed out it is opposed to centralized purchasing of equipment.

Rolley was asked to obtain information and prices on a gate or portable door to be used in MacDonald to keep people from roaming around through the hallways when the gym is in use.

Myers said teachers committees will be named to make studies of elementary English and Junior and Senior High English this year. The teaching staff and administrators decided this is the area to be covered this year, he said.

A discussion was held on a technical point in regards to whether or not board policy was being strictly adhered to by the administrators. It was in regards to the scheduling of dances on the new gymnasium floor at the Beacom Memorial building.

Russell Dysert and Earl Bake, board members, were absent. Grills was late and the meeting had to be delayed until he arrived in order to have a quorum.

A letter was read from Mr. and Mrs. Edward Broderick of Wellsville, commending Joseph Mayhew, high school guidance counselor, for aiding their son in gaining admission to a college. The board was commended for hiring such "high quality" instructors.

Youngsters Blamed For Stubborn Fire

Neighborhood youngsters apparently are rekindling a brush fire on Shive's Hill, firemen said today, after spending six hours Monday fighting the stubborn blaze, which was burning in a half dozen separate places.

When firemen went to the area above Bank St. and along Maine Blvd. early yesterday afternoon for an inspection, they found the fire burning in several places despite being flooded last Friday and again Sunday.

Six firemen from the North Side, East End and Central stations along with pumps from North Side and East End and the chief's car from Central responded to the alarm.

Firemen pumped directly from the high service reservoir on Huston Hill and also used water from two hydrants to fight the flames.

Approximately 1,550 feet of 2½-inch hose, 300 feet of 1½-inch line and 250 feet of booster hose were used by the department to put out the fire and soak the area.

The six hours yesterday sent the total spent on the Shive's Hill blaze to more than 16 hours.

Despite spending some six hours Friday afternoon and night flooding the area, firemen were called back again Sunday afternoon for another four hours.

Firemen also spent about 30 minutes yesterday morning fighting a grass fire at Spring Grove Cemetery and then turned the battle over to firemen from Liverpool Township West department.

Ruritan Club Names Heads

Jerome Steele was elected president of the Liverpool-Calcutta Ruritan Club Monday night at a meeting at Calcutta Grange. He succeeds John Gerren.

Other new officers are: Forrest Saucer, vice president; Hal Emerson, treasurer; Dick Brian, secretary, and Harold Howard, board member for a three-year term.

Ed Stevens, athletic director of Beaver Local High School, was guest speaker.

He screened movies of the Beaver Local - East Palestine football game. Guests were John Cupp, David Dray and Wally Crooks.

Gerren conducted business. New officers will be installed at the Nov. 11 meeting.

'Anti-Strikebreaker' Bill Signed By Mayor

The so-called "anti-strikebreaker" ordinance enacted by Council Oct. 7 was signed into law Monday afternoon at 4:15 by Mayor Bert H. Goodballet.

The ordinance, in effect, outlaws recruiting of strikebreakers by a third party in case of a work stoppage resulting from an "authorized" labor strike or lockout.

The measure was given first reading at Council's meeting Sept. 16 and then passed on suspension of rules last week. Since it does not contain an emergency clause calling for it to go into force immediately after approval by the mayor, it will go into effect 30 days after passage — on Nov. 7.

$525,962 Contract

Let In Beaver Project

BEAVER — A contract for $525,962 was awarded to the Cook-Anderson Co. of Beaver today by Beaver County commissioners for the second, 100-bed addition to the Beaver County Hospital.

Representatives of the Massa Brothers of Beaver Falls, which also bid on the project, objected to the award and said they would seek "a remedy in equity court."

Commissioners said the required forms had been submitted after Cook-Anderson received the first contract on the initial addition.

The contract is now subject to state and federal approval.

PTA Federation Hears President Of School Board

James Lowe, president of the Board of Education, was guest speaker at the meeting of the City Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations Monday night at the Westgate School library.

Lowe emphasized the school board's only aim is to secure the maximum amount of education for students for the money that is available.

He told the delegates from the various parent-teacher groups that federal aid to education is "inopportune and unnecessary" at this time.

A member of the school board for 10 years, Lowe, who is not seeking re-election, recalled events and the work of the board leading up to passage of the school bond issue about 11 years ago.

The board's chief concern now is the condition of Central School and the future use of the high school plant, Lowe said.

Thomas Doland, president, presided. Next meeting is Nov. 11 in the school library.

Wildcats' Parseghian Will Speak At Potter Football Banquet

Ara Parseghian, head grid coach at Northwestern University, will be guest speaker when the 1963 East Liverpool High School football team is honored at a banquet Nov. 30 at Memorial Auditorium.

Russ Hall is chairman of the dinner sponsored annually by the Blue and White Nonpareil Club.

Parseghian, a native of Akron, has been credited with the rapid rise of Northwestern into a Big Ten contender.

When he took over the Wildcats in 1956, Parseghian inherited a team that had been in the Big Ten cellar for a number of years.

In his first season, the energetic new coach moved the Wildcats into the first division with a 4-4-1 record.

Northwestern has been on the rebound ever since as Parseghian transplanted his own high degree of drive and spirit into his teams. This past season, the Wildcats compiled a 7-2 mark, the best record for a Northwestern team since 1958.

In 1962, the Wildcats won their first six games, to rank as the No. 1 team in the nation. Starting with South Carolina, the Wildcats rolled to successive wins over Illinois, Minnesota, Ohio State, Notre Dame and Indiana.

After losses to Wisconsin and Michigan State, the Wildcats wound up with a smashing 29-7 victory over Miami.

So far this season, Northwestern has won three of four starts and is fresh from a victory over Minnesota last Saturday.

Parseghian's success in revitalizing Northwestern's gridiron fortunes follows a pattern set at Miami University of Ohio where his teams in a five-year period won 39 games, lost six and tied one. Under his leadership, Miami won two Mid-American Conference championships.

Parseghian is a student of the great Paul Brown. After graduating from high school in Akron, he enlisted in the Navy where he played football under Brown at Great Lakes.

Following his discharge, he entered Miami University where he competed in football, basketball and baseball. He won All-Ohio halfback honors and received All-American mention in 1947 when Miami played in the Sun Bowl.

Following his graduation, Parseghian played with the Cleveland Browns but an injury brought a quick end to his professional playing career.

He launched his coaching career when he returned to Miami as an assistant to Woody Hayes in 1950 and moved into the head coaching position when Hayes went to Ohio State the following year.

Parseghian is married and has three children, two daughters and a son.

ARA PARSEGHIAN
Head Grid Boss Of Northwestern Wildcats.

Parseghian coached East Liverpool's Bob Mackall a former All-Ohio quarterback. Mackall, a senior, is a member of the Northwestern squad but injuries have kept the East Liverpool lad on the sidelines the past two seasons.

Tickets for the banquet will be placed on sale soon and only sold in advance. No tickets will be sold at the door the night of the banquet, Hall said.

A dance for Potter players, coaches, managers and cheerleaders will be held at Elks Lodge 258 following the banquet.

Brown Lauds His Ex-Coach At Cleveland

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Brown bristles when it is suggested that the Cleveland Browns are playing inspired football just to show up ex-coach Paul Brown.

"There is no animosity in us at all," the Cleveland fullback told the New York Quarterback Club Monday. "We're not trying to prove anything about Paul, except that we can play football."

"I sort of feel sorry for him (Paul). He is a proud man. He was a great coach."

Jimmy said Blanton Collier, the club's new coach, had instilled a new attitude and a new philosophy into the team. He pointed out that many of Paul Brown's plays were retained.

Naturally, Jimmy had some remarks to make about Sam Huff, the Giants' middle line-backer who usually keys on him.

"I looked down at my ankles so many times and saw No. 70 (Huff's number) that we're going to have to do something about him in the beginning of the game next time," Brown looked at Huff in the audience and added, "You had a good first half."

Brown said the publicity of his personal duel with Huff had been great and admitted there had been a little flare-up now and then.

"We've played against one another for six years," said Jimmy. "And we had words once or twice. Two scrapes in six years isn't bad."

Lucas Due In Opener Despite Sore Knee

CINCINNATI (AP) — A sore right knee won't keep prize rookie Jerry Lucas from the Cincinnati Royals' season opener at St. Louis Wednesday.

Lucas, former Ohio State All-American, sat out the hard running drills of practice Monday in preparation for the National Basketball Association leadoff game.

Coach Jack McMahon said the rest of the Royals' 10-man squad was physically fit.

Lisbon Ranked In Top 20

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The top spot in the Associated Press high school football poll proved too precarious a perch for Sandusky, and Niles McKinley took over the lead again today after a week's absence.

The Blue Streaks, held to eight first downs by a rampaging team of Findlay Trojans, needed a 73-yard touchdown run by Tim Stokes in the final minutes to eke out a 12-12 tie.

The deadlock dumped Coach Earle Bruce's team to fourth place in the poll.

Some of the other leading teams had a tough time, too. Springfield South was held to an 8-6 score by Dayton Chaminade. Massillon edged Canton McKinley by only 24-20. Akron South was dumped 6-0 by Akron Garfield, and East Liverpool fell 24-14 to Youngstown Rayen.

When the smoke cleared, 50 sports editors decided Niles McKinley, 1961 champion, was the best in the Buckeye realm. Coach Tony Mason's powerhouse romped 60-22 over once-beaten Toledo Scott to run its unbeaten record to 43 games.

From here and there: Wilmington, winner of 11 in a row, made it into the big time by halting Circleville's 22-game winning streak, 22-21.

Bill Eskew, 5-foot-8 quarter-back for Beavercreek, completed 11 of 14 passes for 129 yards and 2 touchdowns — eight of them to 6-5 senior end Bill Hanselman — and his team made it 15 straight by beating Dayton Stebbins.

Niles used 55 players against Toledo Scott and led 42-6 at the half. The Red Dragons, idle this week, play Farrell, Pa., Oct. 25.

Halfback Bill Martin of Elmore rushed 265 yards in 20 attempts, boosting his six-game total to 1,152, in the 26-6 victory over Berlin Heights. Bill Blunt of Massillon scored on a 65-yard pass play, on a 28-yard sweep, and had a couple of 50-yard non-scoring jaunts against Canton McKinley.

Junior Dave Hutchins of Mansfield went 89 yards for a touchdown on a kickoff return against Elyria — but Elyria won it 15-8. Wayne Local's 12-game winning streak was halted 12-10 by Brilliant, leaving Jefferson County without an unbeaten team.

Wilmington's Bucky Scott scored all three touchdowns in the triumph over Circleville, going 70, 30 and 20 yards. Willie Rice of Lorain Admiral King, a freshman, moved up to the varsity three games ago. Two weeks ago he scored both touchdowns in the 12-8 upset over Mansfield, and Friday he gained 113 yards and scored all his team's points in the 14-8 loss to Marion.

Roger Lammers of Dover St. Joseph has scored three touchdowns in each of three games and has 74 points for six contests. Chagrin Falls — which has won by 66-0 and 62-14 in its last two starts — is unbeaten in 25.

Cleveland Collinwood has a 275-pound tackle named Jeff Adie who shifts to fullback inside the five-yard line. He's scored three times.

Alliance halfback Win Young raced 183 yards in 14 carries and scored twice in the victory over Warren. He has a 70-point total and more than 900 yards gained for the year.

Steve Budnick of Millersport has scored 70 points in the last three games. Dayton Roth's unbeaten team is made up of sophomores and juniors, and eight backs have scored touchdowns. Verbie Walder, the team's aerial artist, has completed 24 of 46 passes for 403 yards and 6 touchdowns. The coach is Kenny Amelin, former Wilmington College standout.

3 Homecomings Set In District

Lisbon, Louisville Meet Friday In Tri-County Showdown Contest

A showdown battle in the Tri-County League and Homecoming celebrations at three local schools will feature football action in the district this weekend.

In a game Friday night that should determine the Tri-County League championship, unbeaten Lisbon entertains high-scoring Louisville, a team that was undefeated in 1962 and has won five of six encounters this season.

HOMEcomings will be celebrated at Wellsville High, Oak Glen and Beaver Local.

Coach Bud Bucher's Lisbon squad, which has reeled off six victories in a row and four in league competition, face the defending league champions of "Hap" Lillick, last year's "Coach of the Year" in Stark County.

Louisville has scored 234 points in its last four games, rolling over Glenwood, 28-6; Leetonia, 68-0; Sebring, 50-0; North Canton, 38-8, and Poland, 78-8. The win over Poland broke a school scoring record that had stood since 1924.

BUT BUCHER'S Blue Devils can also score with ease, and ripped Sebring last time out, 44-22. The Devils beat Poland, 30-8. Lisbon will have to stop junior Bob Gladieux, averaging 9.2 yards per carry, in order to win and perhaps annex the league title.

Wellsville High, winless in six games, faces one of its most worthy opponents in Salem at Nicholson Stadium.

The Tigers have lost 19 games in a row to Salem, and haven't defeated them since 1942. Since the series began in 1905, Salem has accumulated 42 victories and Wellsville has won only eight. Two games have ended in ties.

FULLBACK George Begalla, 202-pounder, will lead the Quakers against Wellsville. He has tallied six touchdowns.

Beaver Local, beaten badly in its last two games, finds itself a slight favorite Friday night in entertaining winless Carrollton. The visitors have lost to Sandy Valley, 31-0; Newcom-erstown, 22-14, and Minerva, 42-6.

OAK GLEN, fresh from its first victory which came in a thriller against Follansbee, draws a rugged assignment for Homecoming at Newell's Memorial Field. The Golden Bears stopped Follansbee, 6-0, for one of the season's first upsets last week, and now tackle strong Bellaire St. John's.

Bumped from the unbeaten ranks by Youngstown Rayen, East Liverpool's Potters continue in strong competition in visiting Martins Ferry Friday night. It appears the Potters have their work cut out for them in the second half of their schedule.

In other Friday games, Sebring visits Columbiana and East Palestine will be at Minerva. There's six games on tap Saturday, with only one—Stanton Local at Crestview—in the immediate area. The other teams hit the road.

Sooners Drop To 6th

No Doubt About It, Texas Ranked 1st; Pitt Is No. 3

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Texas Longhorns, who've worked their way up step by step, took over the No. 1 spot today in The Associated Press poll of the nation's college football teams, leading a wholesale shuffling resulting from last weekend's stunning upsets.

The Longhorns finally climbed into the top spot by knocking off Oklahoma 23-7 Saturday. The Sooners had been rated the No. 1 team in the country going into the game.

Texas, rated No. 5 in the pre-season balloting topped by 1962 national champion Southern California, made the top after moving a step at a time up the ladder. The Longhorns were fourth in the first regular poll, third in the next, and second a week ago. Oklahoma, leader for the past two weeks, skidded to No. 6.

The special panel of sports writers and broadcasters gave the Texas 51 of 55 first place votes, after wading through the weekend wreckage that showed defeat for five of the teams in last week's Top Ten.

Besides Texas, the only other winner among the elite was Wisconsin, which beat Purdue 38-20 and jumped from fifth to second. Wisconsin got the four first place votes that didn't go to Texas.

Pitt advanced from sixth to third while Mississippi jumped from 10th to fifth. Both were idle Saturday.

In addition to the defeat of the Sooners, Alabama was upset by Florida, 10-6; Southern Methodist bumped Navy, 32-28; Southern California was beaten 17-14 by Notre Dame; and Penn State was downed by Army, 10-7. Ohio State was tied by Illinois, 20-20.

Southern California, which led the first week but then was beaten by Oklahoma, dropped clear out of the Top Ten. The Trojans were No. 7 last week.

Penn State, ninth a week ago, also dropped out.

The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses and total points on the 10-9-8-etc. basis:

Team	Points
1. Texas (51)	546
2. Wisconsin (4)	487
3. Pittsburgh	413
4. Ohio State	238
5. Mississippi	218
6. Oklahoma	191
7. Illinois	147
8. Georgia Tech	146
9. Alabama	145
10. Tie, Navy and Northwestern	103

In 1962 the Pittsburgh Pirates won the National League flag by a margin of 2 1/2 games.

Wilkinson Boots Star From Team

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — The University of Oklahoma football team became the object of nationwide surprise for the second time in three days Monday when star halfback Joe Don Looney was dropped from the squad for disciplinary reasons.

The first surprise came Saturday, when the Sooners, then rated No. 1, were soundly outplayed by Texas and defeated 28-7.

Coach Bud Wilkinson declined to comment on the incident. He would not say if the loss to Texas had anything to do with the dismissal of the 224-pound speedster from Fort Worth, Tex.

But Looney's father, Don Looney, a star end for Texas Christian in the late 1930s, told the Fort Worth Star-Telegram that Wilkinson telephoned him to say:

"I am sorry it happened. He had lots of ability, but he had some bad practices last week, and we decided that this cost us the ball game."

Looney's father said his son had a sore foot last week which hampered him in practice.

The elder Looney told the Star-Telegram that Wilkinson said the OU senior football players had taken a vote and decided they could do better without his son.

A newsman was told by OU end John Flynn, Looney's roommate, that the big senior had moved out of the dormitory and headed for a relative's home in Kansas.

Rumors had persisted for some time that such a move was brewing. Looney reportedly was the object of some displeasure from the coaching staff when he skipped spring training to try out for the track team.

Cub Pitcher Is Comeback Player Of '63

CHICAGO (AP) — Young Dick Ellsworth, voted the National League's comeback baseball player-of-the-year in the annual Associated Press Poll, is happy to get the award but never wants to win it again.

"No thanks," said Ellsworth who compiled a 22-10 record with the Chicago Cubs in 1963 after a horrible 9-20 mark in 1962. "If you have to lose 20 games one year and then come back and win 20 the next, I don't want it anymore."

The 23-year-old left-hander credits the development of a slider for his season, which included a 2.10 earned run average with 75 walks and 185 strikeouts in 290 2-3 innings.

Ellsworth collected 24 votes in the balloting by 68 baseball writers and finished far ahead of Curt Simmons of St. Louis, another southpaw.

Simmons picked up 11 votes. St. Louis shortstop Dick Groat was third with 10, and Ron Santo, the Chicago Cubs' third baseman, received 9.

2 Backs Share Honors, Manley Paces Linemen

Fullback Bob Bowyer, halfback John DiPasquale and tackle Bud Manley were named the top performers in East Liverpool's first loss of the season to Youngstown Rayen Friday night.

The three were picked by the coaching staff who name the leading players each week after grading movies of the game.

Head coach Bob Hedmond said "Bowyer was picked for his fine running. He picked up 82 yards. DiPasquale made two fine touchdown runs in that game."

It was Manley's offensive blocking and his bang up defensive game that earned him the lineman-of-the-week award.

Hedmond also announced that guard Ron Echols, injured early in the Rayen game, would not play Friday night at Martins Ferry. Echols sustained a knee injury and proved a big loss as Rayen battered his spot for good yardage all evening.

Either Mike Snowden or Chuck Taylor would replace Echols, Hedmond said.

McLaughlin, Shearer Lead Beaver Gridders

Jim McLaughlin was named back of the week and guard Dick Shearer was voted the outstanding lineman by the Beaver Local coaching staff for their performances in the East Palestine game Friday.

Coach Ed Stevens said "McLaughlin gained 101 yards against East Palestine and we felt Shearer did a consistent job both offensively and defensively."

Movies of the Beaver Local-East Palestine game will be shown tonight at 8 at the high school.

Beaver Local's reserve squad dropped a 26-8 verdict to Lisbon Saturday.

Council Given Estimates On Lisbon Funds

LISBON — Council Monday night accepted the Columbiana County Budget Commission's estimates for revenue for the 1964 budget, showing $19,019 outside the 10-mill limitation, and $16,981 inside, with $13,585 for bond retirement and $2,038 for the police pension fund.

A spokesman for the Lisbon Hotel complained of the all-day parking in front of the hotel in S. Market St. and Mayor Dean Stockman referred the complaint to the street committee.

Clerk - Treasurer Ray Hempstead reported he had to transfer $500 from the general fund to the swimming pool fund to pay bills.

A street light was requested by Miss Helen Prudner at the end of W. Chestnut St., beside the village park at the Sadie VanFossan Swimming Pool. The request was given to the street light committee for recommendation.

A discussion was held on how to prevent parking after dark at the swimming pool and several recommendations were made but no official action was taken.

Council joined the Center Township trustees in requesting that persons hauling trash to the district dump prevent the debris from falling from the trucks.

Complaints have been received from both Lisbon residents and persons residing along the route, who have to clean up the trash after it falls off.

Wellsville Crash Hurts Woman, 33

An area woman was hospitalized with injuries suffered in a two-car crash on lower Clark Ave., Wellsville, Saturday at 4:30 p. m.

Mrs. Wanda Fiscus, 33, of Mechanicstown was in "fair" condition today at City Hospital with a neck injury.

Police said her car was hit in the rear by another driven by Elmo Hawkins of Malvern R. D. 1.

Mrs. Fiscus told police she was stopping to avoid another car that pulled into her path from 25th St.

Police said the third car may have been damaged slightly, but the driver did not stop.

Hawkins was charged with failure to stop within the assured clear distance and was fined $25 and costs at a hearing yesterday before Mayor William Daugherty of Wellsville.

Achor Baptist Church Damaged By Vandals

LISBON — Vandals caused $45 damage at the Achor Baptist Church off Route 170 near Negley early Sunday morning, according to Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan.

The same group allegedly stole Sunday papers from the Pancake Store on Route 170 and scattered them along Route 170 for several miles.

The vandals broke a 20-x-30-inch glass valued at $5 in the outside church bulletin board and bent two cast aluminum lamp posts at the entrance of the church which were valued at $40, VanFossan said.

Parents of youths who destroy property during the Halloween season will be cited into Juvenile Court, where they will be expected to pay for damages, VanFossan said.

Mail Employee Retires

William F. Azdell, a postal employee for nearly 44 years and superintendent of mails for the last 14 years, was presented a gift from fellow workers and a citation from the department at a brief ceremony Monday at the Post Office.

The ceremony was held to mark his retirement from the $8,800-a-year post, which was effective Sept. 28.

In addition to the citation, Azdell was presented with a purse by his fellow workers and a personal letter from the new Postmaster General John A. Gronouski Jr., commending him for his service. It was the first time a retired employee has received a personal letter from the boss of the nation's postal workers.

By his retirement, Azdell forfeited nearly 3,000 hours of sick leave to which he was entitled.

Azdell, who resides with his wife on Harding Ave., was appointed to the department Dec. 23, 1919, as a clerk and worked the night turn for a couple of years.

On Aug. 1, 1943, he was made a special clerk and was appointed clerk in charge on Sept. 1, 1948.

He was named superintendent of mails on July 1, 1949, to succeed Kaufman, who had been elevated to assistant postmaster.

Virgil G. Kirkbride, assistant superintendent, has been named acting superintendent pending a permanent appointment. Theodore W. Burke, superintendent of the Station A office in East End, has been appointed temporarily to succeed Kirkbride.

AP Staff Writer Gives Views

29 Of 60 Quit Smoking At Experimental Clinic

A month has gone by since AP staff writer Michael Keating and 59 other men attempted to quit smoking in an experimental clinic sponsored by Roswell Park Memorial Institute, New York State's cancer-research center. Here is Keating's third report.

By MICHAEL KEATING BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—After 15 years and 109,500 cigarettes, I have quit smoking.

So have 29 other men—all of us taking part in an experimental stop-smoking clinic that bolsters will power with drugs and psychology.

The clinic has been under way for a month and I have not had a cigarette since it began. Desire for one is almost negligible. A month ago it dominated me.

Although clinic doctors are withholding final judgment on their work until six months have passed, my mind is made up—Roswell Park Memorial Institute has a technique that helps a smoker stop without too much of a wrench.

Of the 60 men who started in the clinic a month ago, 30 no longer are smoking, 19 have reduced their smoking by at least half, one man has cut back less than half, and 10 others dropped out.

When the clinic began, Dr. Charles A. Ross, the director, said that if 50 per cent quit smoking for six months he would consider the clinic a success.

Besides will power, the clinic employs the psychology of group action and two drugs—one to substitute for nicotine, the other to control appetite, which often increases sharply in the absence of smoking.

Drugs were given for the first time two weeks to 30 of the men. The other 30 received imitations. Neither the doctors nor the participants know who received the drugs. This information is contained in a code that will not be broken until the six months have passed.

Ross thinks that at least some of the men quit without benefit of the drug—lobeline, which stimulates the nervous system as does nicotine.

Participants in the experiment report varying reactions.

Arnold Winer, a 28-year-old teacher, says, "I haven't had a cigarette since the clinic began and I haven't missed them."

Donald R. Denk, 38, a lawyer who decided to quit smoking after suffering a perforated ulcer, reports "I stayed off about 10 days." Then came a cocktail party, and he flunked.

He is smoking about a pack a day, half of his previous consumption.

I have passed the cocktail test and the other tests — drinking coffee, facing tense situations, arguing politics, all without benefit of cigarettes.

Professional Surveyor Can Help

By JOHN BOHANNAN

This is a good time of year to shop around for a used boat. Some are excellent bargains. Others only appear to be, and once they are purchased, thousands of dollars must be spent on repairs before they can be used with safety.

Small open boats are fairly easy to survey because there are no hidden areas. Sight along the keel for evidence of hogging or rocking. Check metal hulls for popped rivets, weld failures, dents, rust or corrosion. Scan fiberglass for fatigue cracks. Look for dry rot, broken or cracked frames, filled plank damage and loose fastenings in wood boats.

THE BOAT must be gone over inch by inch, inside and out, to be sure, and it's important enough to be worth plenty of time and effort. When looking for dry rot in a wooden boat, use the handle of a small penknife to rap along the planking, frames, stem, keel, transom deck beams, decks and every other piece of wood. If you come to a spot where the sharp rapping is deadened, ask permission to push the blade into the wood, across the grain. If there's rot, it will sink in without effort.

Suspect any places where the paint or varnish is peeling, or where fresh paint has been applied.

Never trust a "friend". He will sell you a rotten boat just as quickly as a stranger. The conscience gimmick is to pretend he doesn't know about the rot, then be surprised and shocked when you find it.

When interested in purchasing a larger cruiser or sailboat, there are so many hidden areas it's smart to employ a professional marine surveyor to double-check your own examination.

AN AGENCY handling marine insurance usually has at least one experienced marine surveyor on call. They rely on his appraisals in settling claims. The surveyor knows where to look for trouble and he usually can find it in a hurry.

When inboard engines are being checked, insist on a compression meter test of each cylinder for comparison with factory ratings. This is one of the best condition indicators short of removing the heads, and will give a reasonable all-around idea of how well rings and valves are holding the compression.

When buying a used outboard motor from an individual, the best inspection is to take it to the service department of a reputable dealer for a complete check-out.

Although an operating test is important, no boat should be surveyed while in the water. It must be hauled to expose the entire hull below the waterline.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Q.—Does a marine surveyor guarantee a boat to be free of defects?

A.—I've never heard of one being that foolish. Here's a quote from the written report of a marine surveyor we know: "This survey sets forth the condition of the vessel, including hull, machinery, equipment, fitting and outfit, to the best of the surveyor's ability without the removing of bulkheads, paneling, ceiling or other portions of her structure, and without the opening up of her machinery and auxiliaries for internal examinations. It represents the honest and unbiased opinion of the surveyor, but in no event is to be considered as a guarantee."

Q.—Just how expensive is repair work on wooden hulls?

A.—Very expensive, if done by a good yard. For example to replace the steam and a couple of short planks on a 23-footer I know of ran up a bill of nearly $800.

NAUTICAL TERMS

Hogging — Hull distortion caused by improper support of the ends, allowing them to sag. The keel takes on a concave curve.

Rockering — Hull distortion from inadequate support at midships, causing the center to sag. The keel assumes a convex curve.

Ceiling — The interior covering of the hull along the topsides.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Tuesday, Oct. 15, the 228th day of 1963. There are 77 days left in the year.
Today's highlight in history:
On this date in 1872, nineteen members of the Polaris arctic expedition were accidentally left adrift on an ice floe. The party was rescued off the coast of Labrador on April 30, 1883, after having drifted approximately 1,800 miles.
On this date
In 1498 explorer Amerigo Vespucci returned from his first American voyage.
In 1764, Edward Gibbon was inspired to write his history of Rome while sitting in the Forum.
In 1851, gold was discovered in Melbourne, Australia.
In 1945, Nazi puppet Pierre

Laval died before a firing squad in Paris as a traitor to France.
In 1954, hurricane Hazel lashed the Eastern Seaboard of the United States causing the loss of 166 lives.
Ten years ago... Britain's Sir Winston Churchill was awarded the Nobel Prize for literature.
Five years ago... The United States unveiled the X15 rocket plane, built to carry man twice as fast and more than four times as high as he had ever gone.
One year ago... President Kennedy welcomed Premier Ahmed Ben Bella of Algeria at the White House.
The first animal mentioned in the dictionary is the aardvark. This South African animal grows to be six feet long, and although its diet consists almost exclusively of ants and termites, it can kill a man with its powerful forelegs and long claws.

Junior Editors Quiz on FIRE

QUESTION: Why does water quench fire, since its parts, oxygen and hydrogen, make fire?

ANSWER: It's true that water is one part oxygen and two parts hydrogen; also true that fire is the result of the oxygen gas in the air combining with the carbon or other organic substance in the fuel being burned. But the oxygen in the air is a gas or very light state of matter, while the oxygen in water has combined with hydrogen to make water, which is a different state of matter, a liquid.
For fire, there must be, first, some fuel which will burn. Second, this fuel must be heated to what is called its "kindling point." Third, there must be plenty of free gaseous oxygen to unite with the fuel. In the diagram, you will see that paper must be heated to 363 degrees F. before it will burn and the kindling point of wood is still higher. But notice that the hottest water can get, under ordinary pressure, is 212 degrees. This means that the boy in our picture is throwing water with a low temperature on a fire with a very much higher one. The water instantly lowers the fuel below the temperature at which it burns and the fire goes out.

FOR YOU TO DO: Follow the example of Jack in our picture if you're about to leave a camp fire. He's lowering the fuel's temperature below its kindling point so there's no chance of any more fire.

Charlotte Robinson of Augusta, Ga., wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review and you too may win a set.

Tennessee Ernie And The Good Life

"Oh, I come in. I work three days a week, tapin' two shows a day back to back. Then I work five weeks that way, tapin' ahead so I can take the sixth week off."

"Another four week outen the year I'm off again and somebody like Jimmy Dean or Charlie Weaver takes over."

I get up on the ranch much as I can. That's hard t' bear, isn't it? And I'm sponsored, besides."

The man, who presides over the daily doin's of the ABC-TV daytime talk-and-songfest, "The Tennessee Ernie Ford Show," stared lazily over Central Park from his New York hotel room and wished he were back in his adopted town of San Francisco, playing golf.

HE WAS trimly ensconced in a golfing jacket that bore an association emblem on its heart; and the famous Ford mustache was neat as a prone parenthesis on his face.

He's got it made.

His TV production company owns the "Channing" series and is working up pilots for a baseball comedy show, "Butterball Brown," and a game show, "Perquackey."

Ernie's own easy-going program has, contractually, a year and a half to go. He plays a couple of state fairs in the summertime, cuts an occasional record and has a book of "ramblings" coming out this fall, "This Is My Story, This Is My Song."

HE SHOWED the manuscript to his wife recently and "after she'd been reading it for 35 minutes, she let out a screech. 'Wh-a-at!' I almost ran out of the house."

He even has a full-hour holiday special coming up on another network the Sunday before Christmas—the story of Nativity, with commentary written by Charles Taswell, author of "The Littlest Angel," and St. Luke. The hymns are sung by the Roger Wagner Chorale.

A couple of months ago, an album called "We Gather Together" was issued, featuring Tennessee Ernie and the San Quentin Prison Choir.

"I HAD THE IDEA a long time ago," Ernie said, "but it just laid there in my head, until I read about Alcatraz closin' down and there went the idea."

"Then I heard there was a 37-man choir at San Quentin. So we went down there to the prison and did it. You go in an' thar they sit, afraid an' scared. People look at 'em like they were freaks. But they've got souls and hearts, though they've made mistakes."

"Well, they were so slicked up, shoes shiny, an' within five minutes, we was havin' a ball. We recorded in a beautiful little chapel they have there and it went real well."

"I wanted to pay them. Scale. But you can't do that. I wanted to hold out their pay in escrow, but you can't do that either. But we did manage to get 'em 42 new choir robes and send five albums to each of their families."

ON HIS ABC SHOW, Ford manages to sneak in a prayer song each show, as well as "the rhythms and things."

"We've got a real lady singer in Kathy Taylor. We keep the talk loose. You can't get very timely when you tape in advance, so we kinda wax philosophical on universal stuff."

"And we put the guests at home. When the Russian Cosmonaut, Titov, was in San Francisco, we had him over and didn't talk space talk once. We talked about eatin', golfin', fishin', huntin'. Got great shots of the guy laughin'."

Occasionally, he said, the show will go off on location—to Lake Tahoe, or aboard the U.S.S. Hancock.

THERE'S TALK that Ernie will be telecasting from the Winter Carnival in Minneapolis early next year. But "location" to Ford more often means puttering about his 15-acre place near Palo Alto or his large ranch, where he raises Herefords, up near the Oregon border.

It's no wonder that when you mention the possibility of a nighttime TV show to Tennessee Ernie, he says, "Oh, whenever it gets dark, somebody's callin' me up about a nighttime show. But what would I want that for? What I've got now, as I say—it's hard t' beat."

Thief Takes Wheels, Drops Car On Ground

A callous thief took the two front wheels and tires off an East Liverpool woman's auto overnight, then allowed the nose of the car to drop to the ground, she complained to police this morning.

Then the thief left the unsupported front end of the car drop to the ground, she said.

Where's the busy cook? She's busy all right, but not in the kitchen. She's attending the PTA meeting, doing a bit of shopping, meeting her husband. And all the while her Gas Range takes over. Starts the oven... cooks the roast to perfection... even holds it at "just-done" juiciness when dinner is delayed.

Only with Gas can you have the automatic Keep-Warm Oven which holds foods at the exact temperature to retain heat, but not cook. It takes the flexibility of Gas to achieve this great new break-through in cooking convenience.

For top of the range cooking, too, Gas proves its versatility... modern Gas Ranges have the Burner-with-a-Brain, which adjusts temperature automatically and so quickly that the most delicate vegetables won't stick or scorch and the trickiest sauces come out perfect every time.

Wonderful as the modern Gas Range features are, there are even more cooking wonders to come with Gas. Undergoing tests now in the Gas companies' laboratories are ranges that will cook your entire meal according to an instruction card which you place in a slot in the range.

You may be sure that when great new advances in cooking convenience are made, Gas Ranges will have them first.
